IXI HISTORY VS. LA

Despite both teams' inaugural seasons coming in 2014, this matchup marks the first – and last – time the two clubs will face one another. LA Galaxy II was founded in 2014 and began play in the USL Championship (then called the USL Pro) that same year. Indy Eleven was founded in 2013, but didn't join the USL Championship until the 2018 season. With "Los Dos" jumping to MLS Next Pro in 2023, this will be their only meeting – unless the square off in November's USL Championship Final, that is.

INDY ELEVEN VS. LA GALAXY II – SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 2022

FAMILIAR FACES – CITY OF ANGELS EDITION: Indy Eleven fans will recognize one recent Boy in Blue suiting up for LA Galaxy II on Saturday, as defender Liam Doyle will make his return to Carroll Stadium. Doyle appeared in three games for the Boys in Blue during the 2021 season after being loaned from USL Championship side San Antonio FC late in the season on September 13.

When it comes to players on Indy's roster, midfielder Bryam Rebellón is a familiar face to the Galaxy organization. The Colombian footballer played for LA Galaxy II during the 2016 season, appearing in 24 contests and scoring twice.

LAST TIME OUT: The Louisville-Indianapolis Proximity Association Football Contest rivalry again brought some of the best out of Indy Eleven, which picked up its first point of the 2022 USL Championship season courtesy of a draw 1-1 at Eastern Conference leading Louisville City FC. Forward Stefano Pinho opened his Indy Eleven account to give the Eleven a lead midway through the first half, but LouCity defender Sean Totsch's 53rd minute finish brought the scoring to its eventual close, forcing a share of the spoils.

Louisville came into the contest without conceding a goal while Indy entered the game without a tally on the year, but things changed for both sides in the 22nd minute when Pinho made Law's continued creative work pay off. After Law shook his defender in the left side of the area to gain space, his short, driven cross to the back post was nodded home by the Brazilian striker Pinho, allowing him to celebrate his account opener in front a sizeable contingent of Brickyard Battalion supporters who traveled down I-65 for the rivalry showdown.

The field tilted the home side's way in the second half, and initially it looked like Eleven midfielder Sam Brown's sliding tackle in the 52nd minute deep inside the area would help keep Louisville off the board. However, the ensuing corner saw Totsch get on the end of the recycled set piece 10 yards from goal, and his first-time shot through traffic evened the score.

A skirmish between the two rival clubs just inside the final 10 minutes set up a tense finish, which only got more heated after a pivotal goalline clearance by Eleven forward Rodney Michael in the 83rd minute. Nothing came from six minutes of stoppage time, allowing Indiana's Team to go three straight games undefeated at Lynn Family Stadium dating back to last May.

INTERNATIONAL WINDOW CLOSURES FOR INDY TRIO: Three players that missed last weekend's match for Indy Eleven – midfielder Neveal Hackshaw and defenders Noah Powder and Alex McQueen – have wrapped up duty for their respective national teams after a pair of matches across the last 10 days.

McQueen started his European adventure with Grenada on March 23 by playing the full 90 minutes in a 0-0 draw at Gibraltar (yes indeed, in the shadows of the famed Rock of the same name). The England-born McQueen rounded out the Spice Boys' pair of friendlies by playing 60 minutes in Grenada's 0-1 loss to Andorra on Monday.

Meanwhile, Hackshaw (24 caps since 2016) and Powder (9 caps since Jan. 2021) both represented Trinidad and Tobago against Barbados on March 25 and Guyana on March 29. Powder started both contests, playing 84 minutes in both T&T's dominant 9-0 against Barbados and their 1-1 draw against Guyana. Hackshaw was subbed in for the final 16 against Barbados and started against Guyana, logging 63 minutes.

SEASON NINE STARTS FOR INDY ELEVEN: The 2022 campaign marks Indy Eleven's ninth season of play in franchise history – and its fifth in the USL Championship since it joined the league ahead of the 2018 season. The Boys in Blue have compiled a 48W-44L-27D record in its 117 regular season contests (51.7 win %). The Eleven have also recorded two wins and two losses in the USL Championship Playoffs during its appearances in 2018 (1 loss) and 2019 (2 wins, 1 loss). Its four Championship seasons at a glance ...

OH CAPTAINS, OUR CAPTAINS: While a lot of new faces – including numerous veterans – have joined Indy Eleven for the 2022 campaign, it will be a pair of Eleven stalwarts in Spanish midfielder Ayoze and Trinidad & Tobago international Neveal Hackshaw who will serve as the club's captains under Head Coach Mark Lowry in 2022.

Ayoze served in a similar role for the first time in Indy last season, while Hackshaw has sporadically donned the armband on the field throughout his four years with Indiana's Team. With Ayoze injured and Hackshaw on international duty, it was veteran center back A.J. Cochran who received the honor of wearing the captain's armband from Lowry for last weekend's 1-1 rivalry row at Louisville City FC.

INDY ELEVEN VS. LA GALAXY II – SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 2022

STEPPING UP TO “THE MIKE”: After three weeks on the road to start the 2022 season, Indy Eleven is thrilled to return to its home of IUPUI Michael A. Carroll Stadium for its first of 17 home contests this season. The Eleven have compiled a 39W-24L-21D record all time in five seasons of play at “The Mike”, which includes USLC and NASL regular season and playoff contests in addition to Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup action.

After three seasons at Lucas Oil Stadium from 2018-20 to start its tenure in the USL Championship, the Eleven returned to its original home for the 2021 season. Last year’s 4W-8L-4D home ledger factored into an overall disappointing season, but a three-game undefeated streak to end the year (1 win, 2 draws) did manage to spark some better feelings for the home faithful heading into the offseason.

All competitions record at Carroll: 39W-24L-21D

- NASL regular season (2014-17): 26W-18-17
- NASL postseason (2016): 1W-0L-0D
- U.S. Open Cup (2014-15): 2W-1L-0D
- USLC regular season (2021): 4W-8L-4D
- USLC postseason (2019): 2W-1L-0D

USL regular season home record (2018-21): 31W-14L-14D (64.4 win %)

Indy Eleven posted the second-longest home undefeated streak in USL Championship history during its Lucas Oil Stadium tenure, going 28 games (21 wins, 7 draws) without defeat from July 2018-July 2020. It also collected a lengthy undefeated streak at “The Mike”, going 21 matches without a loss from Oct. 2015-May 2017.

“CENTURY CLUB” ACHIEVEMENTS HIT, NEAR: After becoming the third member of Indy Eleven’s “Century Club” – players who’ve made 100 appearances across all competitions – last September, defender Karl Ouimette became the first to hit another milestone on March 19 at Tampa Bay, when the Quebec native became the first Indy Eleven player ever to start in 100 matches (95 reg. season, 4 playoffs & 3 US Open Cup).

Meanwhile, Noah Powder is nearing 100 appearances all time in his USL Championship career, as the New Jersey native turned Trinidad & Tobago international currently sits on 98 league “caps” heading into the weekend. Powder has suited up for the Eleven twice after making stops with Real Monarchs SLC (47 games) and NY Red Bulls II (49).

Indy Eleven’s Century Club ... and the next closest active player on the list:

- Brad Ring (2014-2018): 115 caps
- Karl Ouimette (2018-current): 107
- Ayoze (2018-current): 101
- Don Smart: (2014-17): 101
- Neveal Hackshaw (2019-current): 69

TRIO AT USL ACADEMY CUP: Three of Indy Eleven’s seven players on USL Academy Contracts – defender Bryce Warhaft and forwards Palmer Ault and Luca Iaccino – will have an excused absence for Saturday night, as they are participating in the USL Academy Cup in the Tampa area with the club’s U-19 squad. Ault has made a pair of late cameos with the first team across its first three matches, while Warhaft made the bench in its last two games and Iaccino debuted on the bench for last Saturday’s rivalry row at Louisville.

ELEVEN ADD MICHAEL, LOAN TORRES: The roster moves for Indy Eleven continued on March 22 with news that the club had acquired forward Rodney Michael via transfer from USL League One side South Georgia Tormenta FC while also doing a deal with another USL1 squad by sending MF Alann Torres on loan to Forward Madison FC.

Michael joins Indiana’s Team after spending his rookie campaign in 2021 with Tormenta FC, originally joining as a prospect for its League Two squad before turning pro via a USL1 contract last summer. The Freetown, Sierra Leone native contributed a goal and two assists in 15 USL1 appearances last season. Michael, who was a three-year standout with UC-Santa Barbara (23G/15A in 59 games), is the second player to join the Boys in Blue via transfer from Tormenta FC, this after the Eleven made Conner Antley the first such player transaction between the USL’s top two divisions leading up to the 2020 campaign. Rodney made quite the impression in his debut last Saturday at Louisville, as his late goalline clearance helped preserve Indy’s first point of the campaign.

Meanwhile, the outgoing Torres made Indy Eleven history of his own on Jan. 21 by becoming the first player to sign a professional contract straight from a USL Academy Contract. The 18-year-old native of Elkhart, Ind., made three appearances last season with Indy Eleven’s first team after signing an academy deal in August. Torres also played a pivotal part in helping Indy Eleven capture the USL Academy League Playoff title last December, contributing a pair of goals and assists en route to a First Team All-Tournament placement. Torres joins goalkeeper Tor Saunders (Chattanooga Red Wolves SC) as players on Indy Eleven’s now 29-man roster currently on loan.

SEEING RED: Indy Eleven started its 2022 campaign with two players seeing red cards in as many outings. The damage was limited on March 12 at Loudoun, when Alex McQueen picked up a red card in the 90th minute of the 0-1 defeat. After Indy Eleven went all 32 games in 2021 without seeing a single player ejected, McQueen’s red card was the first issued to a Boy in Blue in 39 games dating back to Aug. 15, 2020, when Ayoze was dismissed in the 50th minute of a 1-0 win over Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC at Lucas Oil Stadium. That was followed by Raul Aguilera’s second yellow-turned-red card in the 59th minute of Indy’s 0-2 loss at Tampa Bay at March 19.

INDY ELEVEN VS. LA GALAXY II – SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 2022

LOWRY LEADS OFFSEASON OVERHAUL: After a subpar 2021 campaign, the Indy Eleven brass got to work immediately to remake the squad in the offseason – starting at the top with the appointment of Mark Lowry (click here for full bio) as the fourth full-time head coach in club history.

Lowry lands in the Circle City after a three-season stint with El Paso Locomotive FC, which he guided to a 42W-19L-29D record in USL Championship regular season, USL Championship Playoffs, and Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup action from 2019-21. The native of Birmingham, England, improved Locomotive FC's record across each of their first three seasons of play, the first two of which culminated in back-to-back appearances in the Western Conference Final. Lowry's 40 regular season victories over those three years rank as the fourth most amongst USL Championship coaches across that span.

During El Paso's 2021 campaign, Lowry led Locomotive FC to an impressive 18W-4L-10D (64 points) ledger that easily clinched the Championship's Mountain Division title and marked the third highest point total across the 31-team league. Lowry earned the July 2021 USL Championship Coach of the Month honor, which coincided with the club's 23-game home undefeated run that stretched over a calendar year and was, at one point, the longest such streak in North American professional soccer.

Prior to El Paso, Lowry's first stop as a head coach came with the NASL & NPSL's Jacksonville Armada from 2016-18, which was preceded by four seasons at MLS side Orlando City SC with their Academy squads and U-23 team in the then USL PDL (now USL League 2). Lowry is joined on the sideline by a pair of familiar lieutenants in Assistant Coach Matt Williams and Director, Sport Performance & Assistant Coach Gabe Zapponi, both of whom worked with Lowry in both El Paso and Jacksonville. Andy Swift is the lone holdover on the Coaching Staff, returning for his fifth season as Goalkeeper Coach.

NEW CREW OF BOYS IN BLUE: The Indy Eleven roster also received a makeover in the offseason, as, with the recent addition of Rodney Michael, 17 of the current 29 players are spending their first seasons as Boys in Blue in 2022 (new players listed in bold italics):

Goalkeeper: Elliot Panicco, Tor Saunders, ^Alex Svetanoff, Tim Trilk

Defender: A.J. Cochran, Mechack Jérôme, Alex McQueen, Karl Ouimette, Noah Powder, ^Ecris Revolorio, Jared Timmer, ^Bryce Warhaft

Midfielder: Raul Aguilera, Ayoze, ^Aiden Benitez, Sam Brown, Jonas Fjeldberg, Neveal Hackshaw, Justin Ingram, Nicky Law, Bryam Rebellón, ^Diego Sanchez, Alann Torres

Forward: Manuel Arteaga, ^Palmer Ault, Aris Briggs, ^Luca Iaccino, Rodney Michael, Stefano Pinho

^ denotes USL Academy Contract player

Two of those newcomers – DF Mechack Jerome and MF Bryam Rebellon – bring plenty of familiarity with Lowry after playing for the sideline boss in both Jacksonville and El Paso. In addition, MF Raul Aguilera was a player in Orlando City SC's Academy set-up under Lowry, bridging a seven-year gap between stints under the new Eleven coach.

Of the 12 returning players for Indiana's Team, five received no or minimal minutes as USL Academy Contract players in 2021 (more on that later), leaving just seven regular contributors from last year's side to carryover – marking the second straight season of similar overhauling.

That crew of seven "senior" returnees – defenders A.J. Cochran, Karl Ouimette, and Jared Timmer; midfielders Ayoze, Neveal Hackshaw, and Nicky Law; and forward Manuel Arteaga – represented pretty much half of the squad's returning production, including:

- 49% of minutes played last season (all seven played at least 1,500 minutes)

- 48% of assists created (10 of 21, including a team-high 5 by Ayoze)

- 48% of goals scored (15 of 31, including a team-high 10 by Manuel Arteaga)

Of the returning players, Ouimette and Ayoze are back for their club-record-tying fifth season (equaling Brad Ring's mark from 2014-18) and Hackshaw for his fourth, while Arteaga, Cochran, Law and Timmer return for year #2.

TWELVE DEBUT FOR ELEVEN IN LOUDOUN: Of those 17 newcomers to the roster, a dozen have already debuted with the club, all doing so in the season opener at Loudoun United FC on March 12.

Starters from that match included Elliot Panicco, Mechack Jerome, Alex McQueen, Noah Powder, Justin Ingram, Bryam Rebellon, Aris Briggs and Stefano Pinho ...

An additional four players – Raul Aguilera, Palmer Ault, Sam Brown, and Jonas Fjeldberg – made their debuts off the bench in the second half.

The Indianapolis native Ingram and Noblesville native Ault (a recent USL Academy Contract signing), their time at Segra Field marked their pro soccer debuts.

After going with known quantities in game two at Tampa Bay, forward Rodney Michael made it 13 new Boys in Blue on the season with his 17-minute stint on March 26 at LouCity.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN: While the Indy Eleven brass did plenty to back up its claim as "Indiana's Team" on the roster side, it also balanced out the other half of its motto – "The World's Game" – by stocking its roster with talent from across the globe. The current roster features 12 players who are either full or dual internationals representing 12 different countries:
