JOAQUIN RIVAS JOINS MIAMI FC

Miami FC announced on Wednesday that the club acquired forward Joaquin Rivas from FC Tulsa, while loaning them defender Sean McFarlane for the remainder of the season. Rivas joins Miami having spent the past two-and-a-half seasons in Tulsa, where he had been one of the key figures in the club's resurgence during his second stint at the club, helping Tulsa reach the USL Championship Playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time.

The 30-year-old has also featured regularly at the international level for La Selecta, making 31 appearances at the senior international level while recording four goals and three assists for his country. The Santa Ana, El Salvador native recorded three goals at the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup, and earlier this month appeared in a pair of the side's Concacaf Nations League contests. He joins fellow El Salvador Joshua Perez in Miami's squad as the South Florida side looks to boost its postseason drive.

Rivas departs Tulsa having tallied 27 goals across for four seasons, ranking second in Tulsa's club history, while also ranking second in starts, appearances and minutes played for the club. Rivas had recorded three goals in 10 appearances, while also notching one assist and 13 chances created this season for Tulsa.

MIAMI FC 1-3 LA GALAXY II - BREAKDOWN

The Miami Football Club arrives at Indianapolis to face off against Indy Eleven for a second time this season. The Orange and Blue look for their first win since May 21.

Miami FC is coming off a 3-1 loss against LA Galaxy II. The South Florida side went down 2-0 in the opening ten minutes of the match. However, forward Kyle Murphy closed down the difference to just one goal in the 16th minute. Newcomer Joaquin Rivas helped Murphy get his third goal of the season.

Miami looked as if it tied the game up just before the half. Unfortunately, Callum Chapman-Page's goal was not counted despite the ball crossing the goal line. Galaxy II struck again in the second half to cement an away win over Miami FC.

Miami FC has performed better on the road than at home in league play this season. The Orange and blue have collected 11 points in seven away matches, compared to ten points in ten home games.

Pulis was announced as head coach on December 1, 2022 ahead of the 2022 USL Championship season.

The Bristol, England native takes the helm after spending the last two seasons as First Team Assistant Coach at Major League Soccer's Inter Miami CF. Pulis originally joined Inter Miami ahead of the club's inaugural 2020 season under head coach Diego Alonso, helping the club reach the MLS Playoffs in their first season. Pulis holds both a U.S. Soccer Pro License and a UEFA Pro License.

Pulis is no stranger to the USL Championship, having joined Orlando City back in 2012 as a player coach. He spent three seasons in the role, playing in over 50 official matches and winning the USL Cup in 2013. During this time, he also started coaching in the Orlando City's academy. After the 2014 season concluded, Pulis decided to hang up the boots and join the coaching staff at the club, where he'd eventually be named Head Coach of Orlando City B (OCB) ahead of the 2016 USL Championship season. During his preparations he also served as a first team assistant coach in the club's first MLS season.

While focusing on developing talent for the MLS team, Pulis led OCB to the USL Playoffs in 2016, eventually bowing out to that year's USL Cup winner New York Red Bulls II. In 2017, the club continued its success by finishing the regular season with a better record than the year before. His success at OCB paved the road to being named as head coach of USL Championship club Saint Louis FC in 2018.

With Pulis on the touchline, Saint Louis FC reached the USL Playoffs in his first season at the club. In 2019, his success continued as Saint Louis FC reached the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup quarter-finals, defeating MLS' Chicago Fire and FC Cincinnati in previous rounds. Pulis departed Saint Louis FC after the 2019 season to join Inter Miami CF as assistant coach.

Prior to coming over to the United States, Pulis played over 12 seasons in England.
