MATCH PREVIEW & STORYLINES

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (Friday, March 7, 2025) – Monterey Bay FC (0-0-0, 0 points) officially embarks on its fourth campaign with a trip to Alamo City for a 5:30 p.m. PT kickoff on Saturday against San Antonio FC (0-0-0, 0 points) at Toyota Field in Week 1 of the 2025 USL Championship regular season. Live streaming of the match will be available on ESPN+.

With 14 new faces joining 10 returners on the roster, Monterey Bay FC enters the 2025 season with a fresh identity. Add onto that a revamped coaching staff and new kits, and the redefined squad signals a whole new era for the Crisp-and-Kelp. First up on the agenda; make an early statement in the season opener. Following a promising preseason, Monterey Bay is eager to translate its refreshed energy into a strong first impression as the club officially opens this new chapter on Saturday.

Monterey Bay FC impressed in preseason action, finishing unbeaten at home while offering glimpses of a potentially exciting and well-rounded attack. New signings Ilijah Paul and Adam Larsson were particularly sharp in front of goal, leading the team with five and four goals, respectively. Goals were especially difficult to come by last season, but the duo's preseason form suggests a more potent attack in 2025.

Also among the club's offseason additions is 23-year-old midfielder Ethan Bryant, the 2022 USL League One Young Player of the Year. For him – a San Antonio, Texas native – the season opener carries added significance. In addition to playing in front of his family and friends, San Antonio FC's first-ever academy product is set to face his former club for the first time in his career.

"When I saw we played in San Antonio for the season opener I was immediately pumped," said Bryant. "I'm excited to return to Toyota Field as I have some great memories in that stadium, and I'm excited to make some more on Saturday night. It will be very special to have my family and friends there. I've been looking forward to this since the schedule was announced."

"The team is feeling great. We've had a very positive preseason and have seen growth from week to week," Bryant continued. "I know everyone is excited to showcase everything this Saturday in a great environment to play. Preseason has been about building our identity and working on ourselves, but Saturday and every game forward, our only focus is winning the game."

PREVIOUS MATCH

SEASIDE, California (Saturday, September 7, 2024) – Monterey Bay F.C. (7-13-7, 28 points) fell 1-0 to Western Conference foe San Antonio FC (7-12-7, 28 points) at Cardinale Stadium. Mo-rey Doner became the first player in Club history to reach 100 appearances for Monterey Bay, and Christian Volesky made his official return to Seaside in Crisp and Kelp as a second-half sub-stitute in the match.

Nearly a dozen minutes into the second half, Carlos Guzmán was whistled for a foul inside the visitors’ box and San Antonio FC was awarded a penalty kick. Luis Solignac stepped up to the spot and converted to Carlos Herrera’s left to give the Texas side the 1-0 lead. Monterey Bay held a several-minute stretch of possession in the San Antonio FC half of the pitch through the 87th minute, but the visitors’ held strong defensively to deny the hosts a decent shot on frame and the match ended 1-0 in favor of San Antonio FC.
